

BIO

Mary Campos has been appraising since the late 1980's. She trained under her husband Marc Campos, MAI, SRA originally working in the residential field. Through the years she has expanded past residential work to obtain her general license in 2005. She was awarded the SRA designation in 2006. She has been involved in the Appraisal Institute for many years and currently serves as a Board of Director for the Seattle Chapter. She is currently on the education committee and the Fall Conference Committee. She was Education Chair during 2007 and Vice Chair during 2006. Mary has an associate broker's license and is a member of the IRWA. In her personal life she served meals at a street kids mission, volunteered at Children's Hospital and in May of this year traveled to Sierra Leone, West Africa to work with amputee women. She and her husband Marc have two grown children.